FEATURES

Figure 1 illustrates various symbols used in map design, categorized into three columns. The first column shows symbols for roads and trails: a solid line for Highway, a dashed line for Secondary Road, a line with cross-ticks for Jeep Trail/Wakeby/Ferry, and a line with cross-ticks for Railroad. The second column shows symbols for boundaries and features: a line with cross-ticks for Pipe/Power Line, a line with cross-ticks for Ridge/Physical Feature, a line with cross-ticks for Property/Fence Line, and a dashed line for Nonvisible Boundary. The third column shows symbols for water bodies and other features: a blue wavy line for Stream/Shoreline, a green wavy line for Intermittent Stream, a blue wavy line for River, a blue wavy line for Glacier, a blue dashed box for Military, a grey box for Inset, and a grey box for Out Area.

Where international, state, and/or county boundaries coincide, the map shows the boundary once. For color the highest ranking of these boundaries.

² In 1990, the crews-of-vessels population of ships at sea was allocated to census tracts with a '99' suffix. An anchor symbol appeared on the 1990 maps locating a crews-of-vessel tract. These maps show a very small area symbolized as a census tract with the census tract number shown near the area.

3 A * * * following a block number indicates that the block number is repeated elsewhere in the block.
